

23.05.2017

Vacancy: SOFTWARE ARCHITECT- SALESFORCE

We, at MEG for Consultancy (Middle East) and Internationals Human Power (Germany), are specialist for international recruiting of high qualified expats for German Companies in Germany and Middle East. We support job applicant through the recruiting and the immigration process in Germany.

Info: German government provide the Blue Card for foreigners to immigrate and work in Germany.

For one of our major clients, a German cooperate for Software Development, we are looking as soon as possible for a suitable candidate for the below open vacancy in Germany.

How to Apply

1. If you fulfil the job's requirements, please register yourself in our applicant Portal and upload the request documents on <https://meg-consultancy.com/start-your-career.html>
2. Add following documents/Info to your profile:
  - CV: Use our CV template from the applicant portal (after login), and upload the word format.
  - Professional Picture
  - Qualification/Experience certificates
  - Enter the above Job reference and title in "Target job" section in your profile (Important).

Deadline: 04.06.2017

For any questions send us an email – In the email's subject add the job reference and title.

Selected candidates will be contacted accordingly.

Note: successful candidate can apply for the Blue Card (work and residency permit) for Germany

Thanks & Good luck

MEG for Consultancy recruiting@meg-consultancy.com
www.meg-consultancy.com

The Company:

We design, create and communicate — with our heart and mind and a passion for digital media and technology. We have a solid understanding of the diverse digital market and its requirements and guide our customers on their journey to meet their targets. We use our extensive expertise in the field of internet technology to convert brand needs into real customer relationships. The secret to our success lies in combining strategic and technological skills as well as customer needs and solution strategies. After all, we are a one-stop shop for all customer's services. Only through this approach can we ensure the continual success of customer projects – even with last-minute changes to projects and requirements.

The Company seeking to enrich the growing team with a software developer that has the following.

Your Tasks

As a software architect, you are responsible for the architecture and realization in field of salesforce solutions in interdisciplinary project teams. We use agile procedures and UX methods, because satisfied customers and users are the basis of our success.

- Documentation of requirements and customer's consultancy about suitable professional and technical solutions
- Design of system architectures as well as modeling of solutions based on Salesforce
- Instructions for software developers
- Take over the overall technical responsibility of realization projects
- Collaboration in interdisciplinary project teams and with customers
- Support for the acquisitions activities

Required Skills

- Successfully completed studies with a focus on computer science or comparable study with professional experience
- Multi-year experience in customizing and managing salesforce.com applications
- Very good knowledge of the development of Salesforce / Force.com solutions, ideally with the focus on Apex and Visualforce development
- Good knowledge of HTML, JavaScript and CSS, as well as experience with agile development methods.
- Very good experience with platform specific design patterns and paradigms, UML, conception, architecture methods
- High understanding of user experience and quality
- Good German Language, minimum level B2
- Very good English

The company offers

Challenging and interesting tasks as well as a pleasant working environment in an open corporate culture. With a flexible working time model, training opportunities, flat hierarchies and diverse, innovative thematic fields, you will be able to create the best conditions for your career in digital life and business.