

24.05.2017

Vacancy: Software developer - Frontend

We, at MEG for Consultancy (Middle East) and Internationals Human Power (Germany), are specialist for international recruiting of high qualified expats for German companies in Germany and Middle East. We support the job applicant through the recruiting and the immigration process in Germany.

Info: German government provide the Blue Card for foreigners to immigrate and work in Germany.

For one of our major clients, a German cooperate for Software Development, we are looking as soon as possible for a suitable candidate for the below open vacancy in Germany.

How to Apply

1. If you fulfil the job's requirements, please register yourself in our applicant Portal and upload the request documents on <https://meg-consultancy.com/start-your-career.html>
2. Add following documents/Info to your profile:
 - CV: Use our CV template from the applicant portal (after login), and upload the word format.
 - Professional Picture
 - Qualification/Experience certificates
 - Enter the above Job reference and title in "Target job" section in your profile (Important).

Deadline: 04.06.2017

For any questions send us an email – In the email's subject add the job reference and title.

Selected candidates will be contacted accordingly.

Note: successful candidate can apply for the Blue Card (work and residency permit) for Germany

Thanks & Good luck

MEG for Consultancy recruiting@meg-consultancy.com
www.meg-consultancy.com

The Company:

We design, create and communicate — with our heart and mind and a passion for digital media and technology. We have a solid understanding of the diverse digital market and its requirements and guide our customers on their journey to meet their targets. We use our extensive expertise in the field of internet technology to convert brand needs into real customer relationships. The secret to our success lies in combining strategic and technological skills as well as customer needs and solution strategies. After all, we are a one-stop shop for all customer's services. Only through this approach can we ensure the continual success of customer projects – even with last-minute changes to projects and requirements.

The Company seeking to enrich the growing team with a software developer that has the following.

Your Tasks

- Conception, design and implementation of innovative user interfaces
- Development and maintenance of existing software solutions
- Web design (banners, web graphics, etc.) and implementation in HTML5
- User Experience Design and front-end development for web-based applications
- Development responsive Templates
- Creation of documents
- Support of software architects

Required Skills

- Successfully completed studies with a focus on computer science, IT, informatics, communication, or comparable study with professional experience
- Experience in web-based technologies and responsive design
- Very good knowledge of Adobe Photoshop, Illustrator and InDesign
- Very good knowledge of HTML5, JavaScript and CSS as well as common frameworks
- Good German Language, minimum level B2
- Very good English

The Company offer

Challenging and interesting tasks as well as a pleasant working environment in an open corporate culture. With a flexible working time model, training opportunities, flat hierarchies and diverse, innovative thematic fields, you will be able to create the best conditions for your career in digital life and business.